A contract monitoring trip was made to the [redacted]
on 22 April with [redacted]
of NPIC/P&DS attending.

25X1

The first topic of business concerned the aspheric lens study. [redacted] reviewed the progress to date. The project at present is at a stand still. [redacted] is developing a new lens design program for a larger IBM computer and will not be able to proceed until it is finished; since, this program is required to work our aspheric problems. It was suggested that we extend the period of the contract for 9 months (at no additional cost to us) in order to better utilize the time and funds involved. After considerable thinking on this subject it was decided to recommend this action. The rest of the session involved phase III of that contract; i.e., utilizing [redacted] services as a consultant. He was asked to evaluate the Zoom Tube Magnifier developed for us under [redacted] [redacted] examined the instrument and gave us his impressions and recommendations.
